Create a cozy campsite

If you have a tent: Treat your backyard just as you would when you are at a campsite. Find a smooth, flat surface to call home for the night. Get cozy by adding yoga mats, bed roll or multiple layers of blankets. There is no limit. You don't have to load it into your car! Time to get SUPER COZY!

Don't have a tent? No worries. Create a shelter by tying rope between two trees and hang a large tarp, blanket, or a sheet over the top. You just want to make sure you have a dry place to sleep by laying a waterproof tarp underneath. Don't forget to add unlimited blankets for extra comfort!

Cook up some camp chow in your backyard

While you may not have access to all the great food traditions you may be used to while camping in the outdoors, go through your food options and think about what you can cook over a fire if you have access to a fire pit. If you don't have a fire pit, a grill can be easy to use as well. Of course, you don't need a campfire or grill to eat like a camper. Pack food items that you can easily place in a cooler to grab and eat when ready, such as sandwiches, trail mix, cheese snacks, and preprepared meals.

Plan some games and activities

There is no end to the adventures you can have outside!

- If you are in your backyard, why not break out some fun lawn game such as cornhole, Frisbee, football, soccer, Jenga, volleyball, or any other outdoor game you may have packed away?
- Don't have any outdoor games? No worries. Bring out those dusty board games and play some classics such as Monopoly, Checkers, Sorry, Uno, or just use a deck of cards to play War or Go Fish.
- Have a scavenger hunt. Write down the flowers, trees, toys, or other interesting things you may have in the backyard and let the fun begin!
- Watch a movie outdoors. No need to bring out the entire television set. Bring a tablet and a Bluetooth speaker for instant movie fun!

Make a rule to stay at the campsite

Try to make the event feel as real as camping by prepping ahead of time. Bring everything together that you think you will need, including a tent, sleeping bags, flashlights, games, and a cooler packed with drinks and snacks. Most importantly, don't stress because if you forgot something, you are only a few feet away from your house. If you want to hold a true rustic camp-in, leave all cell phones away from your camping area!
