

COLBIE CAILLAT

Colbie Caillat is a 2X GRAMMY Award-winning, 5X GRAMMY Award-nominated singer/songwriter whose catalog has amassed over 15 billion global streams. Other nominations and accolades for Caillat include Billboard Music Awards, American Music Awards, MTV Video Music Awards, BMI Pop Awards and more.

Her debut album COCO hit #5 on the Billboard Top 200 Albums chart and is certified 3X Platinum, while her Platinum-selling follow-up album Breakthrough landed at #1 on the Billboard album chart. Caillat's radio career boasts eight #1 and/or top 10 singles including 6X Platinum-certified hit "Bubbly," "Realize", "Try" and her GRAMMY-winning duet with Jason Mraz, "Lucky".

As part of the country quartet Gone West, Caillat made her debut at the Grand Ole Opry and the group reached the top 30 on the Country Airplay charts with their Gold-certified single, "What Could've Been" from their album, Canyons. Caillat's debut solo country album, Along The Way, is out now and features hit singles "I'll Be Here" featuring Rock & Roll Hall of Fame member Sheryl Crow and "Meant For Me," which is currently being spun on Sirius/XM's The Highway. This critically acclaimed album has already been streamed over 55 million times.

As an expert storyteller, her live show is personal and engaging from all the stages she plays, from arenas and festivals to intimate clubs.

Throughout her career, Caillat has been an avowed spokesperson and supporter for ASPCA, the Surfrider Foundation, Save The Music, Farm Sanctuary, and The Humane Society of the United States. For additional information visit www.colbiecaillat.com.