

---

JOB DESCRIPTION
Equipment Operator I

---

Reports To:	Golf Course Superintendent, Assistant Golf Course Superintendent, or if applies, Crew Foreman.
Directly Manages:	None.
Classification:	Hourly, full time.
Working Hours:	Normally 40 hours per week.
Duties:	Trained and capable of performing all Equipment Operator I functions. Gaining further knowledge and training to operate specialized equipment and to perform specific tasks in relation to golf course maintenance. This level may have progressive move up potential.

Specifically, the Equipment Operator I must:

- Performs tasks that are necessary to keep maintenance facility and equipment clean, organized and safe on a daily basis.
- Inspects all equipment and tools that are assigned to specific tasks and reports any deficiencies to the Equipment Head Mechanic.
- Performs all functions and routine golf course maintenance activities as directed by listed supervisors.
- Become thoroughly trained in the proper procedures required to perform each task before performing each task.

Requirements:

- Possess good organizational skills.
- Must possess logical thinking to solve problems.
- Ability to carry out detailed written or verbal instructions.
- Ability to visually inspect golf course conditions and report findings.
- Have a valid driver's license and be able to operate a motor vehicle.

JOB DESCRIPTION

Equipment Operator I

Page 2

- Ability to perform heavy physical labor. May be required to work in an environment that includes such activities as bending, lifting, stooping, kneeling, climbing, reaching, standing, walking, pushing, pulling and grasping for up to 5 hours without sitting. May need to lift up to 100 lbs. occasionally and up to 50 lbs. frequently.

This job description does not state or imply that the above duties and responsibilities are the only duties associated with this position. An employee holding this position may be required to perform other, on the job related duties as requested. Requirements may be subject to modification only to reasonably accommodate individuals with a disability.