Opportunities across Navy installations worldwide

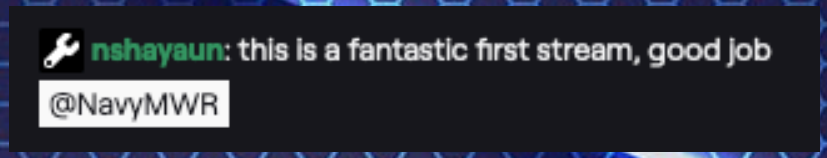

Much like their military experience, gaming requires teamwork, communication, and precision - qualities that resonate deeply with those who serve. Tap into the powerful sense of camaraderie that esports provides by aligning your brand with service members who value community and performance.

Tournaments are WORLDWIDE and provide opportunities that combine our Sailor's love of competition with an exciting activity.

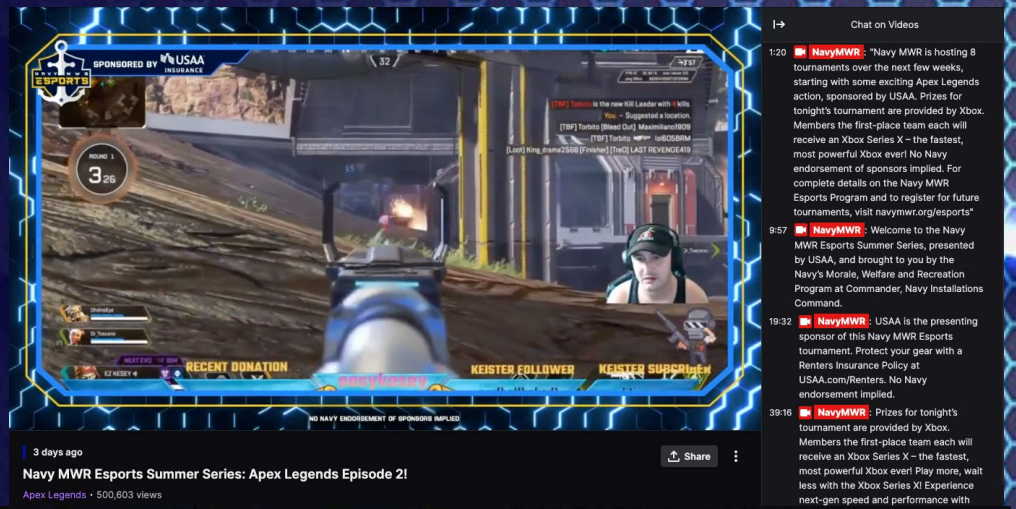

- Online and in-person competitions
- Exclusive to Navy MWR military community
- Each event in the gaming series will be unique
- Prizes for top-placing players/teams
- Featuring a variety of video game titles

Navy MWR Esports

"It was an amazing experience very fun to play with other Sailors in a competitive game! I hope to see more tournaments like this! Thank you for the opportunity of letting us play!"
-Spartacus172

"Thank you so much for hosting these Esports events! Words cannot describe how much excitement these events brought to my team and I. They boosted our morale, especially with all that is currently going on in the world.

MWR does such an amazing job hosting these tournaments and I have played in all of the tournaments hosted so far. Its exciting to see how each tournament gets more and more participation.
Thanks again to MWR for all they do and I can't wait for the next one"!
- Team Slappage Package

"I didn't have a team. I did enjoy playing with other players across the world. This was my first tourney ever. Thank you!"
- P. Allen

"Thank you so much for the opportunity to play and compete in the tournament! We had a blast and are excited to do it again when we can!"
- MM1 Crosswhite

"I did receive the prize and enjoyed the tournament. Especially how easy the sign up process and instructions where 👍 Thank you so much!"
- B. Uriarte
